

CHAMELEON

Does it have to cost the Earth to find out who we really are?

SARAH HOLDING

key selling points

- Intriguing Young Adult science fiction or 'cli-fi' novel set 12,000 years ago
- Written in a realistic style which draws on controversial recent archaeological theories and discoveries
- Focuses attention on our current situation by asking how humankind might have survived a previous climate catastrophe

"Shortly before the fall of Atlantis, genetic engineers create three new prototypes, Kam, Mel and Leon, the first humans to have blue eyes and shapeshifting capabilities.

With climatic conditions on Earth spinning rapidly out of control, it seems the future of Atlantean civilization depends entirely on whether the three test subjects can find a way to work together to solve the deepening crisis.

But first they need to find each other."
